ARMED ROBBER SENTENCED TO 10 YEARS AND 10 MONTHS FOR TWO PHARMACY ARMED ROBBERIES IN SPRINGFIELD, KENTUCKY

– Armed Convicted felon steals drugs

LOUISVILLE, KY - David Majeski, age 47, of 130 Little Davis Lane, Springfield, Kentucky, in Washington County, was sentenced on December 13, 2007, to 10 years and 10 months imprisonment in United States District Court, Louisville, Kentucky, for a violation of the Hobbs Act, using and brandishing a firearm in connection with a crime of violence, and with possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, and Paul Vido, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Louisville Field Division, jointly announced today.

John G. Heyburn, II, Chief Judge, United States District Court, also sentenced Majeski to three years supervised release following incarceration. There is no parole in the federal judicial system. In addition, restitution in the amount of $488 was imposed.

Majeski had plead guilty to having robbed, at gunpoint, the Medicine Shoppe, a pharmacy in Springfield, Kentucky, on two occasions – October 14, 2006 and January 15, 2007, and stealing Hydrocodone, Propoxyphene, and Oxycodone from the pharmacy. Majeski also possessed a Beretta pistol after twice being convicted of felony charges (operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated and attempted robbery, second degree, both in Erie County Court, Buffalo, New York). Under federal law, persons convicted of felonies are prohibited from possessing firearms.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney John E. Kuhn, Jr., and it was investigated by the Springfield Police Department and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.
